Senator Stennis Says

MTF Has Long Term Future In Hancock

By Joe Pilet - Staff Writer

"Any report that the Mississippi Test Facility will be closed or eliminated is not in accord with the facts", said Mississippi State Senator John C. Stennis following a statement allegedly made by space engineers that the three hundred million dollar installation designed for the test firing of America's moon rockets might be abandoned soon by the space agency. The Senator added that not only will NASA continue to operate as a part of the space program, but other programs from Federal Agencies are to be added to keep work activity at the installation at a high level. The Senator assured reporters that he is in almost daily contact with several agencies of the government that are considering locating some big projects at MTF.

Currently there are 2325 persons employed at the plant, according to Terry Malone, acting public affairs official for the plant who arranged for this reporter to observe on Wednesday the testing procedure on the S-11-10, North American Rockwell built and shipped to Mississippi from California.

Since the Mississippi Test Facility was built in 1965 for the purpose of testing a dozen moon-rockets a year the local and state economy has been greatly stimulated and Washington's NASA Headquarters share a feeling with Mississippians that this is an area in which everything possible should be done to keep MTF very much a part of the economy. In this connection Jackson, Mi.

Balch, manager of the facility, has worked diligently and contacted government, industrial and education officials in a concerted effort to fill in any foreseeable gaps that could be created should the site shut down its primary mission in the space program. Dr. Thomas Paine, NASA Administrator, who accompanied Senator Stennis on an inspection mission to the facility immediately after Hurricane Camille struck, publicly stated the government intends to get other agencies into the NASA center.

A dispatch from the Washington bureau printed in Sunday morning's Times Picayune, quoted spaceflight engineers as saying the pre-launch testing of the Saturn 5 rocket's three stages at the MTF is no longer necessary, and that the rockets would be brought directly from factories to the Cape Kennedy launch center starting in 1971. Mr. Malone says he knows of no decision that has been made in this connection. However, the facility could be somewhat diverted from its original purpose.

BENEFITS FROM SPACE
Meantime a study has been made of the benefits derived through space exploration with a view to applying this knowledge to our present day needs such as advanced techniques in medicine, industry, communications, etc. Actually knowledge gained in preparation for and in attaining successful trips to the moon has more than compensated our country for expenditures and efforts made on accomplishment of that objective. For example, in the field of communications Satellite communications are as little as $4,200 per channel each year contrasted with $25,000 per year for one circuit on new submarine cables, according to a report prepared by the General Electric Company and made available to this reporter through the courtesy of Philip E. Culbertson, Director Apollo Applications Program, and Project Integration. The report also pointed out the potential savings of long-range weather forecasting could bring about a savings yearly approaching two and a half billion dollars. Satellites have contributed approximately one-half million usable pictures that have helped to identify, observe and track in the neighborhood of a hundred typhoons and more than thirty hurricanes. Important storm warnings were broadcast worldwide. Gulfcoast dwellers having recently experienced Camille are grateful for advanced warning of winds up to 200 mph and shudder to speculate on the possible death toll this area would have known had not evacuation warnings been received in advance. The space program has made major contributions to ocean technology with other applications of space material use in the sea being advanced. High-speed ground and ocean transportation is benefiting from the use of space material and construction methods. "One of the most promising applications of orbiting spacecraft to forest inventory lies in determining forest location and distribution", the report continues. Along these lines, a recently developed single-channel thermal mapping and infrared thermal detection of crop and forest disease, fire detection and mapping, classification of vegetation, water transpiration measurement and insect detection and migration. It is also being used to monitor a small area of the Amazon basin in Brazil. Good pictures too. Satellites pay available map of the world. There are only a few of these maps from space, explored and mapped from space.

DEBRIS FILLED Clermont Harbor as it appears today.

Destroyed Home Count Continues

Hancock County Assessor George Heitzmann has made a further count of Camille destroyed homes in various subdivisions and communities within the county. The count is as follows:

Clermont Harbor - 261 between the railroad and beach, (this does not include dwellings beyond the tracks.)
Harbor Estate - 26; Bayou LaCrosse - 15; Bayside Park - 39; Bayou Phillips - 1; Shady Acres - 2; Brentwood - 5; Jordan River Estates - 57; Linda Park - 4; Mel Ott - 2; Gulfview - 52; Gulfview Burns Addition - 8; Etrro - 6; Bayou Caddy - 5 and Shoreline Park 274 of which approximately 30 per cent were house trailers.

"In making the count in the subdivisions," said the Assessor, "it was made dwelling by dwelling by streets."

"Checking of the ravaged homes in Hancock County, he added will continue day by day until all are counted."

DOCTORS APPOINTED
Upon the recommendation of the Local Board, Selective Service System, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, Doctors W. L. McFarland and Henry A. Maggio have been appointed Medical Advisors for Local Board 24, Hancock County, effective immediately. The Board wishes to express its appreciation to these doctors for assuming this patriotic responsibility.

500 Attend Civic Association Meeting In Clermont Harbor

Approximately 500 persons attended the forum in Clermont Harbor Saturday night called by the local Civic Association to express the needs of Clermont Harbor and to ask what relief may be expected.

Mrs. Joyce Garcia was the moderator with J. W. Jeffreys of the Corps of Engineers, Supervisors Russell Elliott and C. A. Russ III and County Engineer Matchow as the panel.

In opening the meeting Mrs. Garcia thanked the assembly for coming and expressed thanks to all for aid immediately after Camille had destroyed 90 per cent of Clermont Harbor and put eight to ten feet of water in the remaining ten per cent. She added that the news media had given little if any mention of the town other than it had been declared a disaster area from the railroad to the beach. "We are here and most of us are going to stay here," continued the moderator, "for we believe we have a great untapped potential never included in county planning. Our harbor now full of debris was a popular place for boating, swimming and crabbing. It can be again."

During the questioning of the panel Jeffreys said the Corps of Engineers would start its last pass on the debris pickup October 5, and advised that all debris be placed in the designated area for pickup by that time. In answer to a question about clearing debris from the drainage ditch he said the ditch would be cleared of debris but there by the hurricane but not debris which was there before. He also advised not to put debris over gas or water meters as the cleanup equipment would pick them up with debris as it had happened in Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

Most of the questions concerned street improvements, repairing or rebuilding culverts, repairs for broken water lines, dredging the harbor and the probable hazard of flood waters by the reworking of the railroad fill.

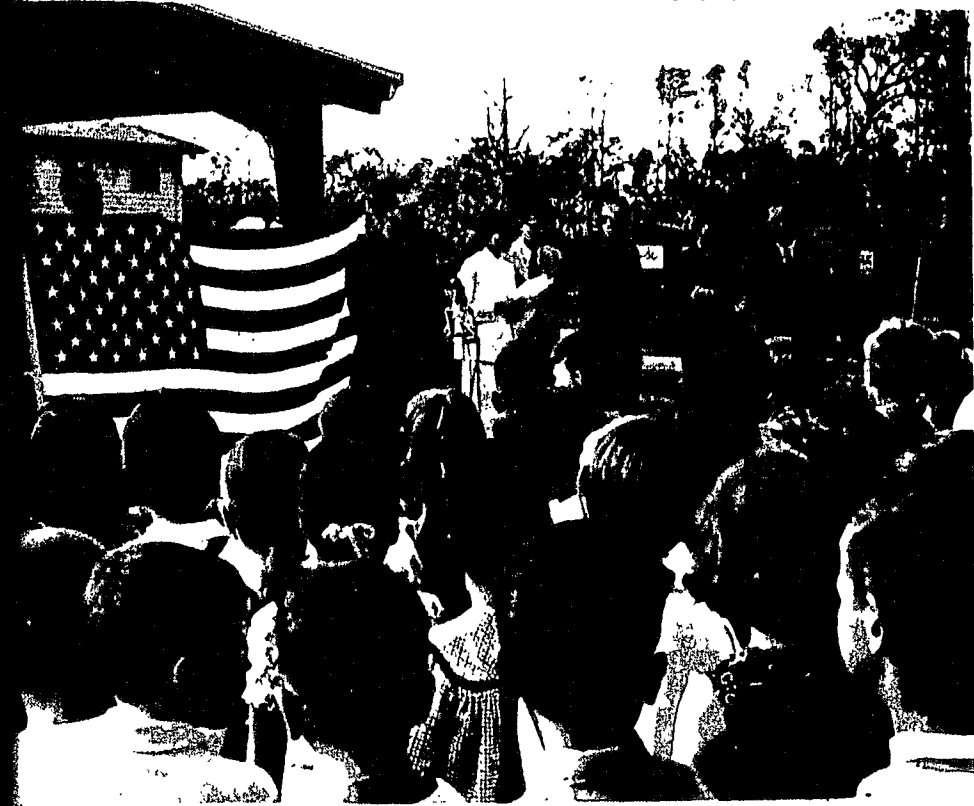

As drinking water in many places is unsafe without purifying many persons with good private wells offered water to anyone.

The Supervisors and the County Engineer told of applying for grants for various agencies which if and when granted would provide for streets, culverts, street markers, civil defense unit and other improvements.

Now in the plans filed with the Bureau of Public Roads is a plan for a new beach road from Bayou Caddy to the Jordan River.

Following the question and answer session Ed Orte, President of the county school board gave an impromptu talk on the area schools.

Officers of the Clermont Harbor 300 member Civic Association are Harold Garcia, President, Kent Seller, vice-president and J. C. Goodlow, treasurer.

ING DAY at St. Clare's School, where all buildings were destroyed by Camille. Sister O.P., principal of the school conducted the opening ceremonies, which was attended by National Press.

Waveland Civil Defense Council Releases Report

August 19, 1969, Waveland organized its own civil defense unit and immediately set about not only trying to help its own people, but also to help its neighbors in Bay St. Louis, Hancock County, communities within Hancock County and Pearl River County.

After Camille passed through Waveland, our damage estimates stood at 80% destroyed, 10% critical and 10% partial.

Thanks to the attitude of our people and the tremendous assistance offered by many outside groups and individuals, we are proud to say that we are definitely on the way back. One of our largest assets toward rebuilding has been a keen sense of cooperation with one another and a willingness to help our neighbors.

Basically, our utility systems are in very good shape and have been functioning for quite sometime. The board of health has approved our water for safe drinking as of 9/17/69, and plans have been made to completely restore our systems. If any gas or water leaks are noticed, please notify town hall.

Citizens are requested to sign a release at the town hall in order that the Corps of Engineers may clear private property at no expense to the owner. In the future, this task will have to be done at the owner's cost. As of 9/18/69, 562 such releases have been signed, but many more are still required.

Everyone is urged to clearly mark all septic tanks, and gas meters or piping so as to prevent damage by heavy equipment. An area from approximately the western city limits, and south of the L & N railroad has been declared as hazardous by the board of health under the emergency statutes. The town council will shortly announce a time limit in which the area must be cleared.

Council Announces 10-Man Task Force

Governor's Emergency Council for Gulf Coast Development announced a 50-man task force is working in the area hit by Hurricane Camille. Brunini of Jackson, head of the 10-man council appointed to coordinate the work of the Coast, said the task force is composed of professionals loaned from the Mississippi Research & Development Center, Agricultural Industrial Board and Agricultural General's office.

responsibility and are working with various federal, state and regional organizations to relieve suffering and bring order from the disaster.

Offices have been established in the R & D Center at Jackson and the Mississippi Power Company building at Gulfport.

Brunini said the number of problems faced by the Council was almost incalculable. "The need is great and the timing must be quick and precise," Brunini said. "This council has been designated by Governor Williams to coordinate rebuilding efforts and in turn President Nixon has directed federal departments and agencies to work through the council."

"We've cut a lot of red tape," Brunini said. "There's a lot more to be cut, of course, but the ball is rolling and most agencies are cooperating."

Brunini said LaRue had been working with various federal agencies to speed federal decision-making.

Priorities were assigned to emergency housing needs and insurance claims. Gil Carmichael, a member of the council from Meridian, heads the team working on securing mobile homes. To date, 1,078 homes have been delivered with another 1,925 on order. Carmichael said 2,980 applications for homes have been certified.

ing efforts and in turn President Nixon has directed federal departments and agencies to work through the council."

The council has been in daily contact with the White House and Fred LaRue, a Mississippi on the President's staff. LaRue has been designated by the President as the executive departments coordinator with federal agencies.

Brunini said the actions of the President and Governor placed "a tremendous responsibility on the shoulders of this council. We intend to justify this confidence."

United Fund Now Underway

The Hancock County United Fund is now underway according to J. R. Shadoin, campaign chairman.

He stated that the campaign goal set prior to Hurricane Camille will remain. A goal of $27,598.00 had been set for the local county drive.

Due to much need now incurred by Camille, organizations that receive contributions from the fund will need help even more than it was felt by the Board of Directors, since they operate on a 24 months basis.

Bay St. Louis Council Reports

The City of Bay St. Louis did not have sufficient funds to make a $97,000.00 payment for bond maturities interest on the 3 million dollar bond issue for the sewerage water distribution systems due to Camille's effect on the revenues. Bond maturities amounted to $45,000.00 and interest is $52,922.00.

Presently we have hopes that the holder of the bonds, HUD allow additional time to meet the obligation or as an alternative give the City direct financial assistance by forgoing the payment on the principal and/or the interest. The $100,000.00 WE CARE gift has been deposited and none of this fund has been expended. Its use is limited to the benefit of the whole community for alleviation and suffering caused by Camille.

The Corps of Engineers will begin its last pass of the cleanup project October 5. This will be the final opportunity for property owners to get rid of debris. Put all your debris at edge of the pavement and the Corps will pick up everything it leaves.

If you contemplate application for a trailer do so at once applications for trailers made after October 10, will not be accepted. The cut-off date for trailer applications was October 10, but was extended to October 10.

The taxpayers' collection office is in no way responsible for taxes due we ask that taxpayers make sure when taxes are paid that taxes on all property or properties are paid. There is no way of knowing when an individual is paying taxes.

Yesterday, payment in full of $8,500.00 was paid to the Hill Construction Company for an obligation incurred two years ago by the previous administration for the purchase of sewerage collection facilities.

Telephone call yesterday morning revealed that the Mississippi House of Representatives had just passed unanimously providing for ten and a half million dollars in loans and grants to Gulf Coast states. It was anticipated that the Bay St. Louis will receive $500,000 in grants from this act.

Youth Program Develops Payrolls

"The Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC) under the auspices of the U. S. Department of Labor, Manpower Administration, was responsible for bringing an approximate $30,000 payroll into Hancock County during the six weeks immediately following Camille," said George L. Guess, Manager of the Bay St. Louis office of the Mississippi State Employment Service.

Sponsored locally by Pearl River Opportunity, Inc., Columbia, Mississippi and administered by employees of the local State Employment office, Guess continued, the program was initiated August 21, when Harold Hooper of the Gulfport State Employment office advised that funds were available to pay up to $1.60 per hour for clean-up in Hancock County's disaster area.

"The following week the quota was raised and 94 people were employed and the employment peak was reached the third week when 148 local people were working in eight different centers of employment. Due to the opening of schools, many employees returned to classrooms the next week and the number of employees dropped to 101. When the program ended September 26, there were approximately 50 people on the payroll.

Guess then pointed out that "the criteria for receiving the funds used for the program were originally that employees should be 18 years old and not more than 22, a school dropout and disadvantaged. However, in order to get the funds where they would do the most good immediately, the age limit was lowered to 16 and lifted to 25. This program though short lived did, we believe, serve to relieve some of the hardship brought about by the Hurricane."

Hy McEnery, St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws, were thrown for a loss in a conference game with the Nichols of Biloxi 16 to 6, in Stanislaus Stadium. Scoring: McEnery broke a 30-yard touchdown run by St. Stanislaus' Phillips making a touchdown run. The gain of the afternoon was Tommy Worley's 30-yard pass to Richard McEnery. The mighty Rocks over the Tigers in the latter the Tigers came to stop the Rocks and win. St. Stanislaus very good the first two and went close to pay couple of times but after the half the Rocks never could move into a scoring situation. On the other hand the defense did a terrific job making recoveries and holding the opposition to its two touchdowns. The Tigers outstanding plays included a 30-yard touchdown run by John Huntly, a big 200-pound back and Charley Riley's interception which was turned into a second touchdown by Huntly who was also responsible for the two-two-point conversions. The Rock-A-Chaws now own an 0-2 won-loss record and will be idle this week. They return to action next week against Ocean Springs.

Bay Tigers Take HNC Hawks 20-14

After being on the short end of the score for the first two quarters Bay High tied it up in the third period and in the fourth scored again to win a hard earned victory of 20 - 14 over Hancock North Central Saturday afternoon on the North Central field.

This was the Bay Tigers' third win in as many starts and the Hancock Hawk's first loss in three starts. The Hawks have never won any of the eleven games played against the Tigers.

Hancock opened the scoring in the first quarter after blocking a Bay High punt at the Tiger 30. Lionel Haynes got the touchdown on a two-yard run, and J.W. Rawls ran for a two-point conversion and an 8-0 Hancock lead.

Bay High pulled to within two points of the Hawks at 8-6 on Fairconnetus's first TD run, but the Hawks bounced right back to go ahead 14-6 at the half.

Following the Tiger touchdown, Haynes took the kickoff on his own 13 and streaked down the field on an 87-yard touchdown scamper. A line plunge for a two-point conversion failed.

Fairconnetus got away on his 18-yard touchdown run, then added the two-point conversion in the third quarter to tie the score.

In the final quarter, Ed Harndon intercepted a Hawk pass and returned it to the Hancock 39. From that point the Tigers drove to the Hawk one-only to lose the ball on a fumble at that point.

Hancock, however, was forced to punt, and Randy Starita ran the kick back from the 34 to the 20. Five plays later the Tigers got the game-winning touchdown on Fairconnetus's five-yard run.

Area football fans will have a choice of two games locally Saturday afternoon when Bay High takes on Harrison Central at the Bay stadium while Hancock North Central hosts Pass Christian. Game time for both is 4:00 o'clock.

EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED WEEK

What is it like to be chronically handicapped? Some six million Americans can give an answer to this question, with varying degrees of desperation or hope, depending on how they managed to overcome their disability. When the family breadwinner or the family homemaker is struck by disability, however, the effects spread beyond the individual to encompass entire households. Then many millions more people may feel its ravages.

To understand what it's like, put yourself hypothetically in a wheelchair, or between crutches, or strap on heavy leg braces. Experience the futility of trudging around, in and out of places of employment, listening to the monotony of excuses which pass for refusals.

Try to navigate the steps at entrances to office buildings, court houses, libraries, churches, eating places, theaters. Try to reach the public telephone, or refresh yourself from the thoughtlessly designed water fountain. Watch the public transit vehicles go by, inaccessible to your wheelchair. Feel yourself ignominiously hoisted into an airplane by a fork-lift while hundreds of impatient passengers watch. Search the want ads for an apartment that can accommodate your needs. See what it's like to try to function in an environment that is molded for perfect anatomical specimens.

Yet this is the world where, day in and day out, men and women with physical limitations try to make their mark. The majority of them do, and do it well. Others could succeed with understanding and increased opportunities. They need only to help them help themselves.

During this observance of National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, let us keep in mind the needs of handicapped people and act with more thoughtfulness when the occasion presents itself. If we are in a position to consider such a person for a job opening, let's be sure we give him fair consideration, judging his ability and not his disability. If we have a chance to make the environment more liveable for persons with functional limitations, let's remember that in so doing, all of us benefit.

County Agents Notes

DAIRY CALF RAISING
The average dairyman loses one calf out of five. Are you one of those? If so, you may be better take another look at calf raising.

To raise dairy calves properly you must do some extra planning and give close attention to details. There are many different ways to raise calves but the important things to remember are sanitation, regularity and close attention. You make extra money from successful calf raising by selling calves for good prices, using them to increase the size of your herd and by using them as replacements in a culling program.

Here are some general recommendations for a successful calf raising:

Start early. Give the dry cow extra feed and care. Provide a clean place for the calf to be born. At birth, disinfect the calf's navel with iodine.

Be sure that the calf nurses the cow to receive the first milk. Place the calf in an individual pen. Practice cleanliness and sanitation at all times. Avoid overfeeding. Get the calf started eating calf starter and good hay as soon as possible.

LIVESTOCK INSECTS

Protect your livestock—hogs, beef cattle, dairy cows, sheep—from lice. There is no need for the animals to have to eat enough to support themselves plus a big crop of lice.

Now is the time to spray animals for lice control. You can get a list of approved insecticides for the different types of animals from your local county agent.

Here is a note of caution. Be sure that your equipment is clean and not contaminated with other insecticides that are not recommended for use on livestock.

SHORT ON HAY?

If your hay supplies are short, you may want to plant some extra winter grazing to relieve the limited feed supply.

You can plant ryegrass, oats, wheat or a combination of these. Prepare the land as soon as possible and plant 35 to 50 pounds of ryegrass alone or 25 pounds of ryegrass, along with 80 to 100 pounds of small grain per acre.

High fertilization is a must. Use at least 60 pounds each of nitrogen, phosphate and potash per acre. Then protect the grazing from cattle until it is well established.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH G. RHODES

Miss Dean Becomes Bride Of Mr. Rhodes

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the wedding Saturday of Miss Karen Vern Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan G. Dean Sr. of Pearllington, and Joseph G. "Doc" Rhodes, son of Judge and Mrs. Nellus Carroll Rhodes Sr. of Bay St. Louis.

Rev. Gregory Johnson, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, Rev. William Kelly, SVD., St. Augustine Seminary, and Rev. Frank Wheat, pastor, Pearllington Methodist Church, officiated at the 3 p.m. ceremony.

Mrs. John McKenna, organist, played the wedding marches and a program of nuptial selections during the ceremony. Vases of white mums and gladioli decorated the altar and baskets of white blossoms and greenery were on either side of the chancel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of off-white traditional satin fashioned on Empire lines with a high neckline and long sleeves. Appliques of Alencon lace re-embroidered in seed pearls accented the dress and chapel length train.

Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of lace embellished with sequins and seed pearls and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white sweetheart roses and carnations.

Crowned in tangerine organza was maid of honor Miss Sherry Dean, sister of the bride.

The empire line dress featured a double ecru lace collar and matching velvet sash.

Also attending the bride in identical fashioned gowns of Nile green chiffon, were Mrs. Oren Lusich, sister of the groom, and Misses Marsha Compretta, Virginia Webre, Janet Kidd and Mary Lo Gagnie, all of Bay St. Louis. They carried cascades of tangerine carnations.

Nellus Rhodes Jr. of Jackson, Miss., served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Victor Ross Maurigi and Montl Rhodes, cousins of the groom, Anthony Ladner, Harlan G. Dean, Jr., and Ned Heath.

Anthony Lolacano, Manuel Maurigi, Jr., Oren Lusich, Bart Carr and Thomas Dean served as ushers.

A reception followed in Our Lady of the Gulf School Cafeteria.

The mother of the bride chose for the occasion a two-piece pale green peau de sole suit, matching accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Rhodes wore a shocking pink peau de sole dress featuring a collar of heavily embroidered appliques with matching three-quarter length coat. A shoulder bouquet of white cymbidium orchids completed her ensemble.

The bride's table, overlaid with a handmade lace cloth over satin, was centered with a five-tiered cake encircled with white mums and greenery. Five-branched candelabra were on either side.

After the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake it was cut and served by Russell Maurigi, uncle of the groom. Mrs. Robert Fayard presided at the punch table and Mrs. Wayne Levy of Hammond, La., kept the guest register.

For her wedding trip to Florida the bride wore a red suit with white accessories.

The couple will make their home in Gautier where Mr. Rhodes is employed with Ingalls Shipbuilding Company.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High School. The groom graduated from Bay High, Pearl River Junior College and the University of Southern Mississippi.

Rehearsal Party Honors Couple

Judge and Mrs. Nellus Rhodes Sr. entertained Friday night at their Main Street home with an after-rehearsal buffet supper honoring their son, Joseph (Doc) and Miss Karen Dean, who were married Saturday afternoon in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

mums and greenery centered the table with balls in the background. A three-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom decorated the punch table. Mrs. Robert Fayard presided at the punch table and Russell Maurigi, uncle of the groom cut and served the cake. Gifts were exchanged by the couple and gifts presented to their attendants.

Mr. Gus Aime and wife Janet of Bay St. Louis had bad luck with their other car. It suffered major mechanical failure. So they visited Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and saw J.C. Koenen, who introduced them to Chevrolet. J.C. Koenen gave the Aimes a price on a new Chevrolet Impala that they just couldn't pass up. They are very well pleased with their new Impala and want to tell all of their friends "looking" for a new car to visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask to see J.C. Koenen, he could save them many dollars on just the car they want. Folks from all around have been going to Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and seeing the 1970 Chevrolet now in stock.

GOVERNOR JOHN BELL WILLIAMS of Mississippi (left) accepts a check for $35,000 to the Mississippi "We Care" Fund to aid victims of Hurricane Camille. Presenting the check is Mark Morton, GE vice president and general manager of the Aerospace Group, and observing is John R. Picard, general manager of GE's Management Technical Services Department, headquartered at Bay St. Louis, Miss. The company donated $15,000 to the American Red Cross Disaster Fund, has given grants, loans and assistance to more than 400 of its employees who lost homes or possessions, and has aided industrial support teams to Mississippi Gulf Coast communities hard hit by the devastating hurricane.

Contributes $35,000 To "We Care"

Out efforts by employees of General Electric Co.'s Management and Technical Services Department to help fellow employees, neighbors and their families to snap back from devastation of the nation's hurricane have been rewarded by two major contributions from the company's new headquarters.

Governor John Bell Williams of Mississippi last Friday accepted a check for $35,000 General Electric, a corporate gift to the Mississippi "We Care" Fund to aid state victims of Hurricane Camille. The contribution at a hotel in Jackson was Mark Morton, GE vice president and general manager of the Aerospace Group, General Electric's vice president of the company's new headquarters.

More than 400 employees of GE's Management and Technical Services Department, headquartered at Bay St. Louis, Miss., lost their homes or possessions in the hurricane-per-hour hurricane hit the Mississippi Gulf Coast before midnight on Sunday August 17. Three employees, four dependents and one retiree died in the storm.

Despite their own losses, hundreds of employees of the department worked night and day for three weeks as part of NASA and company task forces sheltering, feeding and caring for evacuees at the NASA Mississippi Test Facility, driving trucks, searching for survivors, distributing relief supplies, operating communications units, salvaging possessions, and helping get utility systems functioning from Gulfport to Waveland.

John R. Picard, general manager of GE-MTSD, said 459 emergency aid grants and loans have been made by the company to department employees so far. In addition, some 43,000 pounds of furniture, clothing, food and household supplies, contributed by GE employees of other organizations, have arrived for distribution in south Mississippi and Louisiana. Monetary gifts from spontaneous employee-to-employee campaigns in other GE departments are also being received to aid local area victims, Picard said.

Mrs. Ernest Netto of Pass Christian was in the need of a pick-up truck. So she visited Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis and asked to see her friend and salesman Fritz Peranich. She told Fritz her needs and asked if he could do for her. Fritz offered Mrs. Netto the kind of deal she was looking for with a Lamar-Lane Chevrolet on a pick-up. Mrs. Netto knows that if ever there was a need for service from Lamar-Lane Chevrolet, there it was. Any problems as their service department is one of the best in this area and all personnel are factory trained experts in their fields. If you're in the market for a car, truck, station wagon or heavy duty truck, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis and ask for Fritz Peranich, he could save you many dollars. Disaster Loans Available For Rural Residents

The Farmers Home Administration is authorized to assist farmers and other rural residents with loans to replace or repair damage to their homes or farm service buildings caused by Hurricane Camille, according to S. B. Wise, the Agency's State Director.

In addition, the Farmers Home Administration can assist farmers who suffered damage to their crops with emergency production-type loans in order to overcome the losses suffered from Hurricane Camille.

Farmers or rural residents who suffered damage to their dwelling or farm service buildings, who cannot replace or repair such buildings from their own resources or cannot obtain credit from other lenders, may be eligible for rural housing loans at three percent (3%) interest. The crop loans also are made at three per cent (3%) interest and are available to the farmers who cannot recover from the damage from their own resources or obtain credit from other lenders.

The local County FHA Supervisor will be glad to discuss these loans with any rural family who has suffered a loss and will give prompt attention to their application for assistance.

The office of the County FHA supervisor are located in Bay St. Louis, next door to Wright Way Cleaners, and are listed in the local telephone directories. Persons interested in such assistance should contact their local county FHA office.

Special Notice To Attorneys

In a Special Notice to all attorneys, dated September 25, 1969, Circuit Clerk Lamar Oatis said:

"The Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi has requested that there be no more than five persons at any one time in the Court Room on the second floor of the Court House in Bay St. Louis due to the damage to the Courthouse caused by Hurricane Camille."

"Therefore, Honorable Harry G. Walker, Judge of the Second Circuit Court District, has authorized us to inform you that Court will convene at 10:00 o'clock A. M. on the Second Monday of October (October 13, 1969) in the Court Room as provided by statute with no formal calling of the docket; and immediately afterward will move to the Board of Supervisors room, if available, or to other suitable space. Judge Walker will be available throughout this 2-week term to take up default judgment and other Court matters which do not need the presence of a jury.

"It is the request of Judge north of the railroad and the Corps is handling the balance of the hazardous area. If property owners desire to clean their own property before the town announces a time limit, then they should post a sign that reads: "Corps of Engineers Keep Off."

As of this date, 182 applications for house trailers have been received and 53 units have been delivered to Waveland. Any information regarding trailers is available from: Don McIntyre, Housing Administrator, Town Hall, 467-4247.

The town council wishes to notify all residents about the hazards due to trash burning and that there is a $100.00 fine for doing so.

Also, it should be mentioned that new codes applying to building, housing, plumbing, electrical and fire prevention will be adopted on or before October 22, 1969. The town will issue no building permits until the new above mentioned codes have been adopted.

We are happy to report that a fire truck was received today on a loan basis from the Office of Emergency Preparedness until our own units can be restored. In addition to several other pieces of equipment, we are awaiting delivery of two new, radio equipped police vehicles.

The Town council has formed a Planning Commission and Housing Authority in order to qualify for Federal Funding under the Urban Development Program, which includes plans for a civil center, sewerage system, disposal plant, shopping center, playing fields, Marina, and low cost rental housing units.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast is definitely going to come back bigger and better, and we are just as certain that Waveland Bay St. Louis, and all of Hancock County will shine as an example for the rest of this coastal area.

The people in Waveland have a motto and we think that it would be fitting and proper for the entire of Hancock County:

"We have CAN DO people with a WILL DO attitude."

Walker that all Court Files be returned to the office of the Circuit Clerk on or before the return day of Court, October 13, 1969."

SLAB DANCE

There will be a slab dance at St. Clare's Parish Hall Friday night from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Proceeds will go for rebuilding of Parish Hall. James Lagasse is chairman of the dance.

W. L. Tilson of the Weather Bureau Office in Mobile, Alabama reported tide reading of 18.4 feet at 4:15 p.m. from Hotel in Biloxi during Hurricane Camille.

lopment. Immediately after the Hurricane there was a delay in getting the homes, due to the federal bid practices and transportation. With the council's backing the red tape was cut and regular deliveries are now being made.

The emergency home shortage should be relieved within the next few weeks.

Bruning said a top priority problem is the need for early action on hurricane code and flood plan zoning. These codes are necessary before rebuilding can be undertaken. Coast municipalities are withholding building permits awaiting the new zoning and code recommendations.

The passage of new codes is a prerequisite to solving insurance problems. Council members Russ M. Johnson of Jackson and Kenneth C. Layton of Gulfport are working in these areas.

Financial problems always arise in rebuilding a disaster area and Robert M. Hearin, Chairman of the Board of the First National Bank of Jackson and Leo Seal, President of the Hancock Bank of Gulfport, are council members assigned to this task.

General Harold Biddy of Grenada is pushing the rebuilding of roads, including Interstate 10 and Highway 90. Working with the State Highway Department, Biddy is coordinating efforts to get additional federal assistance and speed completion of these and access roads.

Other council members include Alf Dantzler, of Pascagoula, vice-chairman, and Sidney Levington of Ruleville and J. R. Scribner of Amory. These men are putting their efforts into council activities of a more general nature.

Council members, although working almost full time, are serving without compensation.

STATE FORESTER WARNS

State Forester Wendell D. Lack has asked all news media, county and municipal officials in the disaster area of the Gulf Coast to take cognizance of the potentially dangerous and destructive situation now existing in forest areas caused by some persons' carelessness. With fire. He said that warnings be issued frequently as we simply must make an extraordinary effort to minimize the chances of wildfires getting started. You can help a great deal.

High School Day Set For William Carey College

Explore William Carey College for high school students and junior college sophomores will be held on Saturday, October 11. Some three hundred young people are expected to attend a full day's worth of activities.

Future Is Promised

owers that normally bloom in early springtime, winter's snow crocus and summer figs are all pre-announcing a full day's worth of activities. The theme of "space" will be asked to "touch" their college careers examining what the small, al arts, Christian-oriented has to offer that is uni- and different from other Institutions of higher learning. "Blast-off" time will take place in the form of registration of all guests at 9:30 A.M. in front of Wilkes Dining hall. Music will be provided by the Crusader Band while the Baptist student Union serves refreshments. Visitors will then "go into orbit" as they are conducted on campus tours by "space girls." Major buildings will be open for inspection and all faculty members will be on hand to counsel with students seeking information concerning majors and minors in various subjects.

Another highlight of the "orbit" portion of the day's schedule will be the Organizational Fair. Thirty-five campus clubs and organizations will display their purposes and functions in various ways for visitors.

Free lunch will be served to all at noon in Wilkes Hall. Morrison's Food Service will be in charge. Entertainment during the lunch hour will be provided by number of talented Carey students.

At 1 P.M. the highly-acclaimed William Carey College Chorus will perform in Thomas Hall under the direction of Dean Donald Winters of the Carey School of Music. Student body president, Hank Guest, will speak briefly and introduce officials of the school. A question and answer period will follow in Rouse Library where financial aid, rules and regulations, and academic matters will be discussed.

An athletic exhibition will be held at 2:30 P.M. in Clinton Gymnasium. Following this the "splash-down" hour will arrive when students will be free to return to their homes or remain on campus for informal entertainment in the evening planned regularly for the student body.

All high school students and junior college sophomores who are interested in attending EXPLORER CAREY DAY should write or phone the Director of Admissions or the Public Relations Office for reservations.

WILLIAM CAREY COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL DAY. Hoping that all their high school friends will visit them at Carey, Saturday, October 11, are Bay St. Louis students Mike Necaise and Kay Dearing. Activities begin at 9:30 A. M. and end at 3:30 P.M. and will include entertainment, information and free lunch. Reservations may be made by phoning or writing to the Director of Admissions.

Larry Nichols Serving Off Calif. Coast

A v i a t i o n Ordnance-man Third Class Larry H. Nichols, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nichols of 716 View St., Waveland, Miss., and husband of the former Miss Hazel J. Williamson of 3333 Oakview Drive, Jackson, Miss., is serving aboard the USS Ranger off the Southern California coast.

The ship recently participated in Operation Bell Express, a combined Navy-Marine exercise, preparing the units for conditions they will meet not only in Southeast Asia, but throughout the Western Pacific area.

The participating Fleet had to evade Navy aircraft acting as enemy surveillance planes as one of the many maneuvers included in the exercise.

Gov. Williams Cuts Repair Red Tape

Ten counties in Mississippi with major hurricane damages will be permitted a short-cut from the state's contract laws in order to get repairs on junior college, public school districts and hospital under way.

Normally the law requires three insertions of advertisements and 10 days for receiving bids before a contract is let. Under the law signed September 19 by Governor Williams, the authorities in 10 counties may make contracts for repairs in the amount of $2,000 without advertising for competitive bids. The law will be automatically repealed on January 1, 1970.

Included in this emergency measure are Jackson, Harrison, Hancock, Pearl River, Stone, Lamar, Simpson, George, Marion and Forrest Counties.

Grayhound Schedules

Grayhound Line services, somewhat disrupted because of storm damages along the highway and to bridges, has been resumed under regular schedules.

For a while it was necessary for buses to be re-routed through Wiggins from Gulfport enroute to New Orleans and again through Wiggins when east-bound buses were enroute to Mobile.

EPISCOPAL CLEANUP by 30 Episcopal Young Churchmen from Meridian, Hattiesburg, Columbus, Laurel and Vicksburg spent the weekend at Christ Episcopal Day School. They were organized into work groups of six each to help with clean-up work in the Bay St. Louis and Waveland areas. The above group is made up of young people from Vicksburg.

OLG GROUP DISCUSSION

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine adult discussion groups in Our Lady of the Gulf Parish are now being organized for the coming year under the direction of Rev. John Casper. Anyone interested in joining a club is asked to call the rectory.

Miss. Industrial Development Hampered By Hurricane Camille

Mississippi's industrial development was proceeding at a record pace for 1968 prior to the advent of Hurricane Camille, Brad Dye, Jr., director of the Mississippi Agricultural & Industrial Board, said here tonight in reporting figures on new and expanded industries secured for the state through the first eight months of this year.

Speaking at a Farm Bureau meeting here, Dye said "It simply would be foolish not to recognize that the damage done to a huge section of our State by the hurricane will retard our progress in securing new and expanded industries this year. How much, we just don't know."

Dye told the group that "We expect to get new industries for the Coast before the end of the year. We already have secured some since the advent of Camille, and we expect more to be announced." However, he said the combination of the hurricane damage, the present tight money situation, and the uncertainties concerning the war in Vietnam and the national tax situation "all are going to make our job here in Mississippi much harder during the remainder of 1969."

The A & I Board director said that, despite the fact that 1968 was a record-shattering year with more new industrial jobs created than in any previous year in Mississippi's history, the State was running about 60 percent above last year in this respect through the first eight months of 1969.

"We also were well ahead of last year and also ahead of 1967 in total new and expanded industries announced during the first half of the year," he said. "And in the important new-industry classification, we had announced 70 new plants through August of this year, compared with 38 for the same period in 1968, and 61 in 1967."
